General Comment

Subject: RIN 1210 - AB32

Please do not change this rule as it would eliminate a key way for me to make some income in my IRA. It would take away my ability to sell put options and to sell covered call options. Also it would eliminate my ability to hedge positions by not allowing me to buy buy put options. You allow people on Wall Street to do this, I want the same privilege. By reducing interest rates and keeping them so low you have taken my ability to own safe instruments, government bonds, away. How's this plan working for our country?

Please do the right thing and leave the present rules alone.

Thanks,

Dr. Philip J Stewart
